Voter Registration and Identification Requirements

Voter Registration at the Polls

Any person who is an eligible Métis voter may register to vote. All Métis voters must register to vote before receiving a ballot. This occurs at the polling station when you come to vote.

To register you must:

- provide documentary evidence of your name, current address and signature (or photo) to an election officer (see below);
- provide your Metis Citizenship Card or Letter from the Registrar, indicating that an application was received before March 30, 2021 and a preliminary review indicates the person is eligible to be registered as a Metis Citizen;

- provide your current Saskatchewan Health Card;

and

- sign and swear, or affirm, the voter registration form.

Voter Identification

Acceptable documentary evidence referred to above is either:

1. Single Document Option - One approved document that shows your first and last names, current address, and signature or photo.

or

2. Two Document Option - One approved document showing your name (this can be your Saskatchewan Health Card) and another approved document showing your name and current address from the Approved Documents List below.
